

KAISER'S INFLUENCE IN MOROCCO

MOORS FAVORING KAISER'S DESIGNS

Believe Germany Will Increase Their Wealth, Pledging Use of All Harbors.

COUNTRY OPEN TO THEM

Knives Made in Germany Offered for Threepence for Which Britons Charge Two Shillings.

EMPEROR GOING TO MADRID

France Preparing for Defence and M. Jaures and M. Auffray Nearly Come to Duel.

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE HERALD.] The Emperor's European edition publishes the following from its correspondent:—ALGERIA, Friday.—Voluminous cipher despatches were sent by M. Révill to-day, in view of the Emperor's renewal of the sittings of the Morocco conference.

I am told with regard to the reports that England, Austria or Italy is interfering that they should be taken with the utmost diffidence.

I had an interview with a Morocco chief to-day. He said:—“Our Sultan invited England to protect Morocco's independence four years ago, but Great Britain refused. Germany assisted us, the Emperor coming in reply to a personal request of the Sultan of Morocco. Germans are intensely popular with us.”

“Since the Emperor's visit?”

“Yes. We believe Germany will make us rich and will not take our country. Germans to-day can go all over Morocco without a guard. No other foreigner can. Germany sells us knives for three pence each. The English charge for the same two shillings. Germany, after the conference, will be allowed to enter and use all our harbors. England's policy is to keep the quarrel going and to prevent any agreement in the conference.”

“And now?”

“Our holy book tells us France is our enemy. If she invades our territory we will declare a religious war. Ratsoul has ordered every household to keep a large stock of cartridges ready. He punishes any breach of that order. He favors the Germans, so does El Torres. The Pretender is now out of favor, the report being that he is a Frenchman.”

FRANCE FORMING A COUNCIL OF DEFENCE

Duel Between M. Jaures and M. Auffray Possible as the Outcome of War Budget Debate.

PARIS, Friday.—In the Chamber of Deputies to-day M. Etienne, Minister of War, replying to criticisms of the army expenses, said that the Minister, being a civilian, was obliged to depend on the judgment of military experts, who upheld fortifications, maintaining that the fortifications of France are amply sufficient to defend her Eastern frontier. He also announced that a Council of National Defence will shortly be constituted on lines similar to the British Committee of Imperial Defence. The Minister added that it was his firm purpose to eliminate politics from the army.

Continuing, the Minister said:—“Our strongholds are in good condition. The rumors of defective supplies are unfounded. All the necessary measures have been taken. The decree establishing the Council of National Defence is now in the hands of the Premier and the supreme commander has already been chosen. He is an officer of incontestable ability and possesses the full confidence of the army.”

In the course of the discussion of a resolution requesting the Minister of War to allow officers to bring actions in the civil courts the debate became most violent. M. Auffray (nationalist) and M. Jaures (socialist) exchanged abuse, and the sitting was suspended.

Later M. Jaures sent his seconds to meet the seconds of M. Auffray and make arrangements for a duel. After a consultation they decided that a meeting was not absolutely necessary.

The Journal to-day published the result of an investigation made by its correspondents along the German frontier. The paper says the Germans do not desire war, but the German army is ready and its superior mobilization plans permit a rapid invasion of French territory. The Journal counsels the abandonment of French reliance on fortifications and the adoption of the German plan of a rapid invasion of the enemy's territory.

CHANCE FOR MR. ROOSEVELT

Belief in Russia That President Might Be Asked to Arbitrate.

ST. PETERSBURG, Friday.—According to advice received at the Chancelleries here, Russia's representations at Berlin with the view of bringing about an arrangement between Germany and France have not been effective. Nevertheless the tension between Germany and France is regarded as somewhat lessened. It is believed here that President Roosevelt is acting in the matter through the German Ambassador, Baron Spock von Sternburg, and the impression prevails that the President might in a final emergency be asked to arbitrate.

KAISER GOING TO MADRID.

German Emperor to Visit Spanish Capital Latter Part of April.

BERLIN (La Presse Special), Friday.—It is definitely arranged that the Kaiser will go to Madrid in the latter half of April, and probably will meet King Edward later in Greek waters. Should direct negotiations between the French and German delegates fail, which it is believed they will not, America may take the task of mediation, supported by other Powers.

President Quintana's Condition.

[BY MEXICAN CABLE TO THE HERALD.] BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, via GALVESTON, Texas, Friday.—In spite of official denials, it is positively known that the state of health of President Quintana is very serious. Besides his private physicians, one military physician has been permanently attached to his household. It is asserted that the members of his family, now at Mar de la Plata, have been hastily summoned to his bedside.

KING EDWARD VII. PLACATES KAISER

Writes to “Dear Wilhelm” Congratulating Him on His Silver Wedding.

SENDS A PUNCH BOWL

Nothing Definite Yet Arranged, However, for Meeting of Emperor and His Uncle.

MONARCH LEAVES FOR PARIS

Travelling as Duke of Lancaster He Will Meet President Fallieres and Alfonso XIII.

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE HERALD.] The Herald's European edition publishes the following from its correspondent:—BERLIN, Friday.—Satisfaction reigns in high circles here, for King Edward has written another most gratifying letter to the Emperor on the occasion of his silver wedding.

King Edward addresses his nephew as “My Dear Wilhelm,” wishes him and the Empress every happiness and hopes they may live to celebrate their golden wedding. He also announces that he has sent the Emperor a silver punchbowl of the Georgian period, so much prized by collectors.

Nothing definite is settled yet as regards the meeting of King Edward and the Emperor.

KING EDWARD OFF FOR A HOLIDAY

English Ruler Leaves for France and Will Meet President Fallieres and Alfonso XIII.

LONDON, Friday.—King Edward will be known for two months as the Duke of Lancaster. He left this evening for a holiday cruise in the Mediterranean. The King, who is attended only by General Sir Stanley Clarke and the Honorable Sidney Greville, will spend the night on board the royal yacht at Portsmouth, leaving early to-morrow morning for Cherbourg, and will arrive in Paris in the evening. He will stay at the British Embassy in Paris until Tuesday, and during his visit to the French capital will see President Fallieres, King Alfonso XIII and King Alfonso XIII.

From Paris the King goes to Biarritz, France, and will remain there until the end of March, afterwards visiting the royal yacht, Victoria and Albert in the Mediterranean, where, it is said, he will meet Emperor William. During his stay at Biarritz King Edward will see King Alfonso XIII and discuss the details of the latter's marriage with Princess Ena of Battenberg.

King Alfonso to Meet Edward VII. and to Visit Versailles.

MADRID, Friday.—King Alfonso goes to San Sebastian on Monday, where during the week he will receive King Edward. Later King Alfonso will go to Biarritz to return King Edward's visit. The Spanish King will afterwards proceed to Versailles and will be met by the Emperor at the latter's residence, returning here in time to receive the King of Portugal, who will visit Madrid on March 12.

MADEIRA DISPUTE NOT YET SETTLED

Negotiations Await Return of Prince Frederick Charles from Paris to Berlin.

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE HERALD.] The Herald's European edition publishes the following from its correspondent:—BERLIN, Friday.—Reports emanating from Lisbon that £1,000,000 (6,000,000 marks) is the compensation to be granted to the Madeira Company by the Portuguese government and that commissions are proceeding to Lisbon and Berlin to settle the matter are incorrect. Nothing definite has been arranged yet. Prince Frederick Charles von Hohenlohe-Oehringen will leave Berlin for Paris to-night and the matter will not be settled until his return.

MISTOOK A THIEF FOR HIS WIFE

Mr. Page Recognized as Spouse Woman Arrested for Shoplifting Who Wept on His Neck.

[From the European Edition of the Herald.] A woman arrested last month for shoplifting in a department store near the opera gave the name of Mme. Page, and was released on the arrival of her husband, who undertook to be responsible for her appearance when summoned before the Judge.

Some days ago the summons was issued, but remained unanswered. Detectives were sent in search of Mme. Page, who does not reside with her husband and who declared:—“I am not a thief. I know nothing about the matter in question. On the day you mention I was at the house of a person whose testimony will prove my guilt.” Investigation showed that Mme. Page's statement was correct. He explained that on the day I was called to the police station I found before me a veiled woman, of about the same height and general appearance as my wife, from whom I have been separated for four years. The police commissary asked, “Do you recognize your wife?” I turned to her and said, “What have you done?” In reply she fell on my neck, weeping.

The commissary told us to go away. Outside the police station my supposed wife hailed a cab and disappeared, saying, “I am grateful, but we will continue to live apart.”

M. Chinnobonot, the “Juge d'instruction” investigating the case, has come to the conclusion that the piffling, acquainted with the facts of M. and Mme. Page's matrimonial troubles, turned her knowledge to good account.

LABOR BILL FAVORED.

LONDON, Friday.—In the House of Commons, to-day, the members of the labor party scored a success with their first bill of the session, empowering local educational authorities to provide meals for underfed school children. The government, through Mr. Austen Chamberlain, president of the Board of Education, and Mr. John Burns, president of the Local Government Board, declared their intention to obtain the passage of the measure at this session.

FAMOUS FRENCH DEPUTY AND HIS ANTAGONIST IN A HOSTILE DEBATE.

A. Auffray

SERIOUS FALL ON RUSSIAN BOURSE

Rumor of Difficulties with French Bankers, and Note Issue Not Based on Gold.

GENERAL KAULBARS IN PERIL

Tsar Decides That No Laws Shall Be Effective Without Approval of the Assembly.

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE HERALD.]

The Herald's European edition publishes the following from its correspondent:—ST. PETERSBURG, Friday.—There was a serious fall on the Bourse to-day, owing to rumors of difficulties with French bankers regarding the new loan and a proposed further issue of bank notes uncovered by gold. Fours were quoted at 77, and there are indications of a further fall to-morrow.

TRIED TO MURDER GENERAL KAULBARS

Unsuccessful Attempt Made Against Life of the New Governor at Odessa.

ST. PETERSBURG, Friday.—A despatch from Odessa received to-night says that an unsuccessful attempt was made on the life of Governor General Kaulbars to-day. Renewed revolutionary activity is noticeable there, and serious disorders are expected before or on Easter Sunday.

M. Fedoroff, Assistant Minister of Commerce, has been appointed Minister of Commerce ad interim to succeed to M. Kutler, who resigned on February 16.

As the result of a series of special councils held at Tsarskoe-Selo under the presidency of the Emperor the main guarantee of liberty have been granted and a manifesto has been ordered to be incorporated in the laws of the Empire. The manifesto will consist of an equal number of appointed and elected members taken from the clergy, nobility, zemstvos, Academy of Science, universities, trade and industry. There will be two houses, both of which will have power to initiate legislation which does not affect the fundamental laws of the Empire. The annual sessions will be convoked and closed by imperial ukase. Both the Council of the Empire and the National Assembly will enjoy the right to interpellate Ministers for alleged unlawful acts. The sessions will be public.

M. Henryk Skieniewiez publishes an open letter to-day thanking Poles living in the United States for funds which they contributed toward the relief of Polish workmen made idle by the recent strikes and industrial depression.

AMERICANS IN PARIS.

Cabled List of Tourists Now in the French Capital.

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE HERALD.] HERALD BUREAU, No. 49 AVENUE DE L'OPERA, Paris, Saturday.

The Herald's European edition publishes the following list of Americans registered yesterday as its Paris office:—

Boyd, A. H. and Mrs., Minneapolis. Cline, Mrs. M. A. and Miss G. R., Cleveland. Haas, Samuel, New York. Haas, Miss Sadie, New York. Jacobs, Miss Sadie, New York. Jones, Mrs. O. A., New York. Lee, Walter O., New York. Munde, Miss Bertha, New York. Michaels, Fred, New York. Pulaski, M. H., New York. Southard, Mrs. F. J., New York. Smith, J. Le Roy and Mrs., Chicago. Walsh, Frank P., Philadelphia. White, James E., McKeesport.

Sir Charles Dilke forecasts the breakup of the two great English parties in the House of Commons. See to-morrow's SUNDAY HERALD.

Pope Rebukes Cardinal Bonomelli

In Approving the Action of Prelates Who Repudiated the Cardinal's Acceptance of Separation Pius X Orders That He Appear Before the Inquisition.

Bonelli has told his friends that, in view of the Pope's condemnation of the Spanish Academy and Carlist deputy for Cabomiga in 1871. His works are legion, but he contributed nothing of especial note since 1890.

ANOTHER PARIS CHURCH RIOT

Manifestants Oppose Inventory and Injure Policemen.

PARIS, Friday.—M. Lapine, Prefect of Police, and a large force of police assisted to-day in taking the inventory of the Church of St. John and St. Francis, under the Church and State Separation law. A number of manifestants made a lively resistance, three policemen being injured and many arrests being made.

A. Jean Jaures

POLICE OF PEKIN GUARD FOREIGNERS

Armed During Recent Disturbances at Nanching in Order to Protect Strangers.

CAPITAL IS QUIET AGAIN

Yale Institute and Teachers, University Hears, Are Not in Any Danger Whatever.

PEKING, Friday.—This city is perfectly quiet, and the police to-day appeared without rifles.

Officials explain that the police were armed to protect foreigners in the event of trouble. Although the government did not believe in the necessity of such a measure, it was best to show the intention of the authorities to protect foreigners.

YALE MISSIONS SAFE.

Chinese Collegiate Establishment and Its Teachers in No Peril.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Friday.—Yale University officials feel relieved in mind because of a cable assuring them that the Yale Chinese Collegiate Mission and its teachers are safe. Professor E. H. Hume, who is at the head of the Yale Educational Mission, province of Chang Shu, to-day cabled in reply to a query sent by Professor Edward B. Reed, yesterday, that the Chinese are quiet and that “the Yale missions are in no way in peril.”

CHANGFU MISSION ATTACK.

VICTORIA, B. C., Friday.—Details brought by the Empress of India of the attack on the American mission at Changfu, sixty miles from Amoy, show that the looting of the mission was occasioned by the anti-foreign spirit. The missionaries escaped unharmed, except Mr. Aldham, who was wounded in the house of a Chinese official and thus escaped the rioters.

Another feature of the Chinese national movement as first indicated by the boycott of Chinese goods, is the movement of independent Christian churches, the movement being organized to act entirely the Chinese Academy and Carlist deputy for Cabomiga in 1871. His works are legion, but he contributed nothing of especial note since 1890.

SPANISH NOVELIST DEAD.

SANTANDER, Spain, Friday.—José Maria de Pereda, the novelist, is dead.

José Maria de Pereda was born at Polanco, near Santander, in 1834, and was educated at the Santander Grammar School and at Madrid. He was a member of the Spanish Academy and Carlist deputy for Cabomiga in 1871. His works are legion, but he contributed nothing of especial note since 1890.

CRISIS IN HUNGARY.

NEW MINISTER OF FINANCE IN THE FEVERY CABINET.

BUDAPEST, Friday.—The reconstruction of the Fejervary Cabinet by the appointment of officials to replace some of the Ministers has commenced, and Dr. Franz Hegedues, Judge of the Administration Court, has been given the portfolio of Minister of Finance.

Diplomatic Immunity Waived.

BRUSSELS, Belgium, Friday.—Chili has notified the Belgian authorities that it waives the right of diplomatic immunity in the case of Señor Waddington, son of the Chilean Charge d'Affaires here, who on February 21 shot and killed Señor Balboa, Secretary of the Chilean Consulate.

Administration of Laws a Farce in Venezuela

English Resident Says There Is No Pretence of Arraignment or Trial and Prisoners Starve Unless Friends Help Them.

Business Men Taxed to Yield Graft

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE HERALD.]

WILLIAMSTADT, Caracas, Feb. 22, 1906.—Continuing his recent remarks on the situation in Venezuela, my English informant, who returned from La Guayra last week, says regarding the administration of justice:—

“There is not the slightest pretence of arraignment or trial, although Venezuela has a code of the most exalted description. Castro is often referred to as a great ruler because he compels people fond of revolution to peace. More than twelve thousand summary arrests, and no one knows how many summary executions, in six years show how he has done it. And the prisons are enough to make the boldest men careful. Men—enemies, if possible—are shackled together head to back, and one dies there in a hurry in relieving the other from his cellmate.

None of the prisoners are fed by the government. The governor of the prison has a store on the premises at which the prisoners can buy food. If they are the unfortunate, otherwise they starve or live on those who befriend them. The horrors of San Carlos jail still the tongue. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.

“The poverty of the country and its industrial prostration are due to the monopolization of all the principal industries of the country by a few men. It is a code that sing the President's praises, and in which he holds the controlling interest. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.

“The poverty of the country and its industrial prostration are due to the monopolization of all the principal industries of the country by a few men. It is a code that sing the President's praises, and in which he holds the controlling interest. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.

“The poverty of the country and its industrial prostration are due to the monopolization of all the principal industries of the country by a few men. It is a code that sing the President's praises, and in which he holds the controlling interest. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.

“The poverty of the country and its industrial prostration are due to the monopolization of all the principal industries of the country by a few men. It is a code that sing the President's praises, and in which he holds the controlling interest. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.

“The poverty of the country and its industrial prostration are due to the monopolization of all the principal industries of the country by a few men. It is a code that sing the President's praises, and in which he holds the controlling interest. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.

“The poverty of the country and its industrial prostration are due to the monopolization of all the principal industries of the country by a few men. It is a code that sing the President's praises, and in which he holds the controlling interest. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.

“The poverty of the country and its industrial prostration are due to the monopolization of all the principal industries of the country by a few men. It is a code that sing the President's praises, and in which he holds the controlling interest. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.

“The poverty of the country and its industrial prostration are due to the monopolization of all the principal industries of the country by a few men. It is a code that sing the President's praises, and in which he holds the controlling interest. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.

“The poverty of the country and its industrial prostration are due to the monopolization of all the principal industries of the country by a few men. It is a code that sing the President's praises, and in which he holds the controlling interest. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.

“The poverty of the country and its industrial prostration are due to the monopolization of all the principal industries of the country by a few men. It is a code that sing the President's praises, and in which he holds the controlling interest. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.

“The poverty of the country and its industrial prostration are due to the monopolization of all the principal industries of the country by a few men. It is a code that sing the President's praises, and in which he holds the controlling interest. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.

“The poverty of the country and its industrial prostration are due to the monopolization of all the principal industries of the country by a few men. It is a code that sing the President's praises, and in which he holds the controlling interest. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.

“The poverty of the country and its industrial prostration are due to the monopolization of all the principal industries of the country by a few men. It is a code that sing the President's praises, and in which he holds the controlling interest. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.

“The poverty of the country and its industrial prostration are due to the monopolization of all the principal industries of the country by a few men. It is a code that sing the President's praises, and in which he holds the controlling interest. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.

“The poverty of the country and its industrial prostration are due to the monopolization of all the principal industries of the country by a few men. It is a code that sing the President's praises, and in which he holds the controlling interest. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.

“The poverty of the country and its industrial prostration are due to the monopolization of all the principal industries of the country by a few men. It is a code that sing the President's praises, and in which he holds the controlling interest. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.

“The poverty of the country and its industrial prostration are due to the monopolization of all the principal industries of the country by a few men. It is a code that sing the President's praises, and in which he holds the controlling interest. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.

“The poverty of the country and its industrial prostration are due to the monopolization of all the principal industries of the country by a few men. It is a code that sing the President's praises, and in which he holds the controlling interest. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.

“The poverty of the country and its industrial prostration are due to the monopolization of all the principal industries of the country by a few men. It is a code that sing the President's praises, and in which he holds the controlling interest. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.

“The poverty of the country and its industrial prostration are due to the monopolization of all the principal industries of the country by a few men. It is a code that sing the President's praises, and in which he holds the controlling interest. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.

“The poverty of the country and its industrial prostration are due to the monopolization of all the principal industries of the country by a few men. It is a code that sing the President's praises, and in which he holds the controlling interest. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.

“The poverty of the country and its industrial prostration are due to the monopolization of all the principal industries of the country by a few men. It is a code that sing the President's praises, and in which he holds the controlling interest. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.

“The poverty of the country and its industrial prostration are due to the monopolization of all the principal industries of the country by a few men. It is a code that sing the President's praises, and in which he holds the controlling interest. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.

“The poverty of the country and its industrial prostration are due to the monopolization of all the principal industries of the country by a few men. It is a code that sing the President's praises, and in which he holds the controlling interest. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.

“The poverty of the country and its industrial prostration are due to the monopolization of all the principal industries of the country by a few men. It is a code that sing the President's praises, and in which he holds the controlling interest. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.

“The poverty of the country and its industrial prostration are due to the monopolization of all the principal industries of the country by a few men. It is a code that sing the President's praises, and in which he holds the controlling interest. In this way without spending a penny on the long for the dawn of freedom. And now and then the President and his crowd hold a banquet with women in the patio of the jail and taunt the miserable beings in adjacent cells.